YOU WON MY HEART

Words by Ray Hibbeler Music by Fred Strasser

Copyright MCMXIV by Harold Rossiter Music Co.

Honey, honey, listen to my plea I fear there's something wrong with me
I didn't sleep a wink the whole night through all I did was lie awake and think of you
That's why I called you on the phone to tell you that I'm all alone
I'm dissatisfied, want you by my side
Ever since that wonderful night.

CHORUS

You won my heart right from the start
You taught me little tricks of lovin' that I never knew
You made me crazy 'bout you, that's why I sigh, and sometimes cry
Oh honey, I am in distress, dying dear with lonesomeness
Won't you listen to my plea, show a little sympathy and come to me
You won my heart.

Now I have your picture on the wall but that don't help me, dear, at all
You'd never recognize it now, that's true 'cause I've hugged and kissed it till it's all worn through
And there's a great big Morris chair so awful lonesome over there
I want company, real live company,
There's just room for you dear, and me.

BE MY LITTLE KEWPIE BABY

Words and Music by N. S. Carter

Copyright MCMXIV by Harold Rossiter Music Co.

Quit your teasing honey, make me glad
Gee I'm strong for you,
I'll be true as your two eyes are blue
Don't be aggravating Honey, I'm waiting,
Be my "kewpie" doll, I love you best,
More than all the rest,
If you've faults then love is blind,
I've never seen one quite your kind
Go on say yes don't make a fellow guess.

CHORUS

Be my little Kewpie baby, I love but you,
If you'll be my baby then I'll never be blue
I can furnish kisses and I'll never run out dear,
You wont have a single thing to worry about
When it comes to loving honey, I wrote the book.
I don't need the pale moonlight or nice shady nook
If you want to know what bliss is dearie
Change from Miss to Misses,
Be my little Kewpie Baby.

Let me whisper honey in your ear,
Don't wish girls on me,
You're the only girlie I can see
Why so tantalizing and so hypnotizing,
I can't fall for any girl at all
B'lieve me that's no stall,
Takes some classy petticoat
To ride with me in my buzz boat,
But you can steer the wheel and let me speel.

At The Million Dollar Tango Ball

Words and Music by JAMES WHITE

Copyright MCMXIV by Harold Rossiter Music Co.

Millionaires, give a tango ball,
The other night, at the Wall Street Hall,
Hetty Green and old John D-,
Vanderbilt and Carnegie,
Millionaires from every town
D d the tango up and down
I know you'd think it funny
If you could see them honey
Doing things up brown.

CHORUS

At the million dollar tango ball,
Given by the millionaires at Wall Street Hall,
John D. Rockefeller sold the tickets by the score
Andrew Carnegie was taking tickets at the door,
Hetty Green was dancing mistress of the floor
Vanderbilt was playing every rag encore
With "Too much mustard" oh you doll
No one thought of home at all
At the million dollar tango ball.

Fragrant perfume filled the air
Diamonds shone from everywhere
I saw Eva Tanguay there
She was singing I Don't Care,
Leaders of Society
Losing all their dignity
You ought to see them swaying
And hear the music playing
On and off the key.

DOWN IN ARKANSAS

Words and Music by Geo. Evans

Copyright MCMXIII by Harold Rossiter Music Co.

Had a girl, her name was Til, down in Arkansaw
Loved her once and love her still; down in Arkansaw
Liver lips and face so black, was so cross-eyd for a fac',
She cried and the tears rolled down her back,
Down in Arkansaw.

CHORUS

Down in Arkan, down in Arkan, down in Arkansaw,
The only girl I ever loved, lived down in Arkansaw.

Deacon Jones had a settin' hen, down in Arkansaw
Gave it to my brother Ben; down in Arkansaw
From a pair of pants Ben made a nest, he told dat hen to do her best,
Dat hen hatched out a coat and vest, down in Arkansaw

Ben and I once owned a cow, down in Arkansaw
'Bout dat cow we had a row, down in Arkansaw
"I own half dat cow," Ben cried,
To fix things up of course I tried,
I killed my half and his half died, down in Arkansaw.

SONG HITS OF THE DAY

BY THE WORLD'S BEST WRITERS

THE WONDERFUL SNAKE IN THE GRASS.

Our illustration gives a very good idea of this wonderful novelty. It consists of a tiny cone, which on being lighted turns into a bunch of grass, out of which there crawls a serpent a yard or more long. They come out in the most lifelike manner, twisting and writhing. After burning they can be kept as a curiosity. Price per box, 15c, postpaid. Extra large size, 25c per box. Order to-day.

LIGHTNING TRICK BOX.

A startling illusion. You take off the lid of this wonderful box and show your friends that it is full of candy, then replacing the lid you can solemnly assure them that you can instantly empty the box, in their presence, without opening it, and taking off the lid again, sure enough the candy has disappeared Or you can change the candy into a piece of coin by following the directions sent with each box Price only 8c, 3 for 20c, postpaid. A neat trick

THE McGINTY WATCH.

A handsome, nickel-plated hunting case watch, stem wind, with chain and charm. Has the outward appearance of the genuine article. The watch can be carried in the vest and when asked the time you can paralyze your friend by opening the watch, for up jumps McGinty from the bottom of the sea. leering and grinning. Price 10c, 3 for 25c, postpaid

GREAT JAPANESE MYSTERY.

The Japs have made some very strange things, but this is the strangest. No one has yet been able to explain what makes it act as it does, nor can we explain it here. It consists of six squares of board, 2x3 inches, connected with fancy colored ribbons and fluted, fan-like wings. Hold it in one hand by the top square and turn it on its hinges as though to close the upper fan, and the next square to the one you are holding will let go and go tumbling down the string end over end until it reaches the bottom, where it remains, and on its way down it changes the color of every fan in the string. Then turn your hand the other way and the next square goes tumbling down, and again the color of the fans change in the most mysterious manner. It makes a very pretty picture as the squares go tumbling down one after the other, the bright colors changing every time. Creates a sensation wherever shown. By mail, postpaid, 12c, 3 for 30c. Don't fail to get one.

THE FIRE EATING TRICK.

A neat box with finely printed label in various bright colors, containing the material for the performance of the ever popular trick of ejecting from the mouth brilliant fire and sparks. It can be done with perfect safety. It also contains full and explicit directions for the permance of the latest professional act, entitled "The Human Gas Well." Price, 20c, pp.

NEW POCKET KINETOSCOPES

The Kinetoscope a remarkable invention that reproduces a series of pictures which give every move in a prize fight or in any affair that is represented. It is put up in such a form that it can be readily carried in the pocket and exhibited at any time. When manipulated it produces the most life-like results, people moving and acting as if alive. One scene shows the great Sharkey-Jeffries fight in a series of 80 pictures. Every round is seen and the pugilists spar and hit in the liveliest manner. It is a real prize fight to the eye and everyone will want to see it. The other Kinetoscope is called "The Kissing Scene," and gives a most realistic view of a lady and gentleman kissing. Very laughable. Price of either 10c, both for 15c, pp

7 TOOLS IN ONE. Tack hammer, glass cutter, screw driver, cork puller, knife sharpener, can opener and saw set, and every tool is a good one. This combination tool should be in every home. Agents can sell them like hot cakes. Sample price only 12c by mail, 3 for 25c.

THE FIGHTING ROOSTERS.

This liliputian pair of full blooded game roosters have real feathers, yellow legs and fiery red combs, their movements when fighting are perfectly natural. They will battle whenever and as long as you desire. Also make a pretty mantel ornament. Price, postpaid, 10c, 3 for 25c.

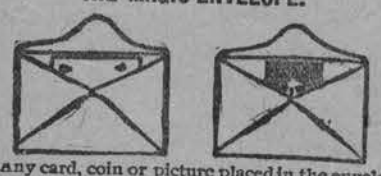

RUBBERNECK JIM.

A great fun producer, brand new and the biggest and newest thing out. "Look at that Rubberneck!" is what is said when a person is continually twisting his head around to stare at you, but a better way to get even is to have one of our Rubberneck Pins fastened to your coat, and every time you are rubbered at just pull the string. Made of silver with long real rubber neck.

Price, postpaid, 10c, 3 for 25c. They are all the rage. Order now

THE MAGIC ENVELOPE.

Any card, coin or picture placed in the envelop changes into any other desired article or vanishes altogether. Price, pp., 10c, 3 for 25c.

MAGIC BURNING & CHANGING CARD BOX,

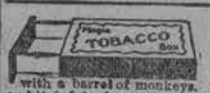

Have any person select a card from an ordinary pack of cards; you then produce this handsome card box which can be closely examined. You now ask the one selecting the card to place it in the box, which being done, the lid is shut and the box placed on the table. You then state that you will cause the card to disappear, and on opening the box this is found to be the case. Another card is now placed in the box and the lid again closed, and when the box is opened the first card appears as strangely as it went. A card is burnt and the ashes placed in the box and at the word of command becomes fully restored. These and many other wonderful tricks can be done by the aid of this box. Printed directions accompany every box. Price, postpaid, 20c.

THE GOOD LUCK PUZZLE.

Can you take the the center shoe off? It looks so easy that anyone would be fooled. The best and neatest pocket puzzle ever made. Made of steel. Pp. for 10c, 3 for 25c.

MAGIC TOBACCO BOX This is truly the jokers little friend, and more fun can be had with it than with a barrel of monkeys. First it is empty, Show it again and it is full of smoking tobacco; breathe on it, and, presto! the tobacco is gone and it is filled with Turkish Cigarettes. Everybody mystified and wild to get one. Selling like hot cakes. Price, 10c, pp., 2 for 25c

FRIGHTFUL RATTLESNAKE. In appearance this novelty is only a harmless piece of coiled paper, with short mouth piece, but when blown into it suddenly becomes transformed to a hideous rattlesnake, over two feet long, which springs out of the roll like lightning, with a whistling, rattling sound that would scare an Indian into fits. Price 10c, 3 for 25c, pp.

MAGIC DIMINISHING MIRROR.

Here is something new.

A round Vest Pocket Mirror, two inches in diameter, with convex glass, celluloid frame, assorted colors. Although small it reflects the full face.

Price, 12c. Each

THREE FOR 30 CENTS; $1.00 PER DOZEN

MAGIC TRICK CARDS

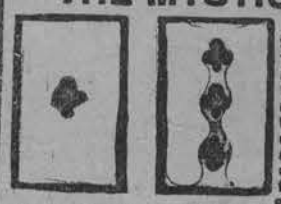

With these cards you can perform the most wonderful illusions. You can shuffle the deck, select the eight of each suit and the deuce of diamonds. Hold the eights in one hand and the deuce in the other. Show them and then add the deuce to the eights, at the same time throwing out one of the eights. Then blow upon them and they are all found to have become deuces Blow again and the cards are found to be all black, again and they become all red. Blow once more and the cards become once more all eights. These transformations are truly wonderful. Ful directions with each pack, enabling anyone to perform these marvelous changes without difficulty. Price, pp., 10c, 3 for 25c.

Stung Match Box.

An ordinary match box which cannot be opened. It is made like a solid block, containing a light block of wood instead of matches. Price 12 cents, 3 for 25 cts. postpaid.

THE MYSTIC ACE.

The ace of clubs is taken from a pack of cards and shown in the extended hand. Instantly, to the astonishment of everybody, the ace is caused to change into the three of clubs and if the audience wishes, back again into the ace. Price, 10c

The Magic Bill Book.

The swellest thing on the market in the way of a gentleman's wallet. It cannot be explained by any known rule and will keep you guessing how the bill gets automatically transferred from under the straps on one side of the book to the other. It is worked as follows: Lay a loose bill or paper on one flap, close the book and, presto, change, the bill is on the other side under the straps. Close the book, open it again, and the bill is on the other side. Nothing better for bills, receipts, etc., as the tape holds them securely and prevents all danger of their fluttering away. Full bill size, strongly and substantially made Price, postpaid, 10c, 3 for 25c.

The Musical Handkerchief

Funniest novelty ever invented. Place the handkerchief to your nose and blow. The result is exceedingly startling. The ladies will scream and your male friends will think they have heard the whistle of a steam calliope. It creates bushels of fun and laughter, The handkerchief alone is worth the price.

Price 10c, 3 for 25c, pp.
